

Our family is very happy with how Indiana's Telephone Privacy law has dramatically reduced the number of unwanted phone calls that we receive. We no longer need to worry about being interrupted at dinner or while spending the evening together as a family. The FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections.